SPONSORSHIP REPORT

Please write a report to your sponsor. Be sure to include information about each subject requested. Write or print clearly. Stay within the margins. Do not write on the back side. Attach any photos to the back page of this report.

SECTION 1: PERSONAL INFORMATION

(Write about personal events or activities which occurred during the previous 3 months.)

Dear sponsor,

It is a significant opportunity to write to you after a long period of time. I thank God for His mercy keeping me over the past three months. Indeed God is good. Just an update of my life and activities in the previous three months; it was worthy and important working with different people from abroad. We shared Christ to one another and this spiced up the outreach church I go to. Another thing is the challenges encountered in helping people renovate the church. This is another experience gotten from the church I congregates from. It was very challenging and am still working hard to curb the problems.

SECTION 2: EDUCATIONAL INFORMATION

(Provide an update of your educational progress during the previous 3 months.)

The past three months have been tiresome in terms of Education. We have had several courses and some them niches; Introduction to Greek by Prof. G. Muzale, Heroes of the Faith (Kennedy Banda Prof) and Bible Geography and Studies near East by Andy Cook. Some of these courses were involving and they have helped me grow spiritually. In this case, the heroes of the faith have been innovative and inspiring. It has helped me be willing to face challenges as part of the ministry. Andy Cook also did his part in helping us on how we can relate the scriptures and places of the Bible; he emphasized on the essential part of geography in the Bible and our understanding of such places; Introduction to Greek sealed everything that I have been struggling with in terms of Greek understanding of key words. We have shared alot and all was possible because of your support.

SECTION 3: PRAYER REQUESTS

(List your prayer requests and praise items. Be specific.)

1. Continue praying with me that I may be physically and spiritually fit.
2. Pray with me that I may encourage people at our Church not to give up on renovating the church.
3. Pray with me that the area around our church may be revived from its cultural norms which are unbiblical
4. Pray with me that I will ^{have} a smooth ministry opportunity during October - January 2020 holiday (Malawi) with youths.
5. My parents will be transferred to another area of ministry in Ntchen Central region of Malawi. So pray that God will use them to maximize every opportunity to share the gospel to the lost.
